Email: john.bruce@swimscotland.org.uk

Entries will be accepted on times only and the organisers reserve the right to restrict the number of heats in each event.

The organisers also reserve the right to balance the entry in each event with an equal number from each age group as far as is reasonably practical.

A draft programme detailing all acceptances, reserves and rejections will be circulated by email as soon as possible after the closing date for entries.

The meet will be fully computerised and no time cards will be used. Start sheets will be circulated as soon as possible after withdrawals have closed (45 minutes before the start of each session). Marshalling will ensure that swimmers go to the correct heats and lanes.

InCAS Distance Gala 2010

F.I.P.R.E., Glenrothes, Fife.

Saturday 1st May & Sunday 2nd May 2010

General Notes

There is ample space around the poolside for swimmers, coaches and poolside helpers.

Results will be published poolside and will be available as soon as practical after the end of each session.

Timing will be electronic with a six lane score board.

Each Club is respectfully asked to provide a minimum of two named STO's for each session where your Club has representation. Details should be completed (electronically if possible) on the enclosed form and should be sent by email to gazswimincas@aol.com. We will contact you directly approximately one month prior to the event to confirm that your representatives are still in a position to assist.

We do hope that you will be able to join us for this gala and that your swimmers have a good competitive, friendly day.

Yours in swimming
